

Summer: A family day

A one-day itinerary for Murray, Kentucky

- 9 a.m. Feast at the hotels complimentary breakfast.
- 9:30 a.m. Take the kids to Central Park for hours of fun on the playground equipment, swimming, playing basketball and walking trails. If you have a furry friend traveling with you, be sure to take him or her by the new dog park to play on the obstacle course.
- 12:30 p.m. Have lunch at Matt B's Main Street Pizza, and chow down on a huge slice! Be sure to get a breadstick with some honey butter dipping sauce.
- 2 p.m. Visit Land Between the Lakes, only a short drive from Murray and go to the Golden Pond Planetarium. Sit under the "night sky" and learn about things far away.
- 3:30 p.m. Still at LBL, see The Homeplace and discover what life in the mid-19th century was like by watching actors perform daily routines on a farm of people from that time.
- 6 p.m. Take Highway 641 South and stop when you see the big cow! Sirloin Stockade is the perfect place for a family dinner, with a buffet, menu and over-the-top dessert bar.
- 7 p.m. See a play at Playhouse in the Park. The kids will enjoy the shows as much as you.
- 9 p.m. After a long day of play, the kids will be tired and ready to turn in for the night.

For details, directions or questions regarding this itinerary, call the Murray Convention & Visitors Bureau at 1.800.651.1603.